

Invitation for Proposals

UNFPA, United Nations Population Fund, an international development agency, invites qualified non-governmental organizations to submit proposals that will contribute to following outputs of UNFPA's 10th Country Programme of Assistance to the Government of Viet Nam for 2022-2026, with a specific focus on population ageing and social protection:

Output 2: Strengthening the integrated, inclusive, life-cycle, and gender-transformative social protection system to population ageing and meet the individual needs of the most vulnerable groups.

It also contributes to Output 1.3: "The national social protection and social care systems are inclusive, coherent and integrated, applying life-cycle, risk-informed, resilient and gender responsive approaches, with a focus on meeting the needs of the most vulnerable people." of the Result 1: "Inclusive social development" of the One Strategic Framework for Sustainable Development Cooperation between UN and Government of Viet Nam for the 2022-2026 period (UNSDCF) (<https://unsdg.un.org/resources/un-sustainable-development-cooperation-framework-viet-nam-2022-2026>)

UNFPA is looking for submissions on promoting social protection and care for older persons (OP) in responding to population ageing aiming to contribute to achieving following objectives:

1. Development of the legal and policy framework adopting life-cycle and gender transformative approach for the protection of the rights of individuals into old age and their empowerment and social inclusion in development and humanitarian settings, particularly with regard to access to high quality health care, prevention and response to domestic violence, employment opportunities and financial security.
2. Development of the comprehensive care system, including institutional and non-institutional, home and community care, with focus attention to vulnerable groups such as ethnic minorities, children, older persons, poor people, people with disabilities (PWDs), and survivors of domestic violence
3. Disaggregated data generation for evidence-based policy making on ageing and care as well as for communication to the public on ageing taking life-cycle and gender transformative approach

Activities under following topics will be eligible under this call:

1. Strengthening policy framework relating to older persons to better address the needs and concerns of OP in rapid population ageing society.
2. Promoting integrated care for older persons through developing linkages and coordination mechanism among community-based and home-based care networks (such as the Intergeneration Self-Help Club (ISHC) network) with institutional care toward development of a care ecosystem for older persons, especially older persons with disabilities (OPWDs).
3. Improving national capacity of aged care, especially community-based and home-based care.
4. Generating evidence, communications and awareness raising on population ageing and older person issues.

Target groups shall be following: older persons, especially OPWDs; community and home caregivers; older persons associations (OPAs); older populations.

The purpose of the Invitation for Proposals is to identify eligible non-governmental organizations for prospective partnership with UNFPA Viet Nam Country Office to support achievement of above mentioned outputs, outcomes and section 1.3 below.

Organizations that wish to participate in this Invitation for Proposals are requested to send their submission through email clearly marked “NGO Invitation for Proposals” at the following address: vbdtender@unfpa.org by 5 August 2022.

Proposals received after the date and time may not be accepted for consideration.

Applications must be submitted in English.

Any requests for additional information must be addressed in writing by 29 July 2022 at the latest to vbdtender@unfpa.org. UNFPA will post responses to queries or clarification requests by any NGO applicants who submitted before the deadline for submission of applications.

UNFPA shall notify applying organizations whether it is considered for further action.
